

Independent Learning Task

Subject	English
ILP #2	Book Review of library lesson class novel
Week set:	Week 10
Duration:	45 minutes
Hand in:	Week 12
Instructions:	This is an individual task for students to write a book review of the novel which they have been reading in their library lessons once a week. It can be written by hand and handed in or done on a computer and either printed off or emailed to/shared with their teacher.
Skills:	This task will develop students' general written skills such as sentence structure and paragraphing. It will also develop a different writing style and text type and allow them to demonstrate adapting their vocabulary and structure for a review.
Marking schema:	This will be marked using the success criteria from the writing assessment framework that the class teacher provides. It will be a judgement of the use of appropriate skills which will be highlighted on this unit's success criteria sheet.
Additional guidance or help:	All instructions and guidance materials will be on the Google Classroom, including exemplars. Students will be talked through the task in lesson time.
